

THE UNIVERSITY OF MISSISSIPPI

GIVING TO THE LIBRARIES AT OLE MISS

"The library is the heart of our university, and it has been a wonderful cardiologist."

—Dr. Charles E. Noyes

CA At the heart of every outstanding university is an outstanding library. It is the reservoir of knowledge essential to the basic educational experience. Your gift to the University Libraries will make a difference at Ole Miss for generations to come.

UNRESTRICTED GIFTS

Most of the donors who support the University Libraries do so through unrestricted gifts. These gifts allow the dean of libraries to meet the libraries' most pressing needs. Most of these gifts come in the form of annual gifts, but some donors choose to create unrestricted permanent endowments that can be used at the dean's discretion.

ENDOWMENTS

Endowments for the University Libraries provide a steady, dependable stream of income that can be used to build collections, buy equipment, hire students and other employees, and offer additional services to our patrons. When other income sources are variable or uncertain, endowments become even more important to maintain excellence in the libraries. As a donor, you will receive annual reports on the materials purchased or the other accomplishments made possible by your gift.

GIFTS-IN-KIND

The University of Mississippi Libraries are highly selective in the types of donated materials that we accept to add to the libraries' holdings. The libraries accept scholarly materials that enhance the collections in support of the institution's teaching and research needs.

FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY

Friends of the Library is an annual giving club designed to raise private support from alumni and friends of the university. Currently, there are more than 500 members of Friends of the Library. Benefits of membership include your name on a bookplate in each book purchased with funds you provide.

If you are interested in supporting the University Libraries or would like more information, please contact Michael Upton, Library Development Officer, at The University of Mississippi Foundation.
